

For Immediate release

executive@micromuseum.com

As of April 9, 2016

Micro Museum presents a premiere talk series

ARTIST BY DEFINITION

Featuring Artists: Pamela Sneed, Jamie Leo, Mike MacIvor and Kay Nishikawa
Micro Museum (2nd floor) 123 Smith Street Brooklyn, NY 11201

Micro Museum launches a new discussion series that will highlight four of NYC's most distinctive voices as they discuss their unique perspectives as innovators in the world of art with a group of passionate thinkers and creative producers in a video recording environment. Each discussion event will be naturally freewheeling and thought provoking.

Poet, Writer and Performer, Pamela Sneed with "Artist as Activist"

CANDIRIA Bassist and Songwriter, Mike MacIvor with "Artist as Pioneer"

Choreographer for K2Dance & Arts, Kay Nishikawa with "Artist as Life Force"

Writer/Artist/Performer, Jamie Leo with "Artist as Interdisciplinary Polymath"

Micro Museum celebrates 30 years on Smith Street in 2016. Curator Kathleen Laziza says "we fall in love with ideas before anything else." These lively exchanges of ideas will be recorded on video and shared online. Please visit www.micromuseum.com for more details. If you would like to attend these free events please send a note to the email below. Seating is limited.

Promote Art Works, Inc (PAWI) at Micro Museum®
123 Smith Street Brooklyn, NY 11201 www.micromuseum.com
Contact: Kathleen Laziza at executive@micromuseum.com